
Join the HertsCam MEd in Leading Teaching and Learning

A two-year part-time masters degree course, taught by practising school teachers and validated by the University of Hertfordshire email hwalker@hertscamnetwork.org.uk for details

This programme supports participants to lead changes in school practice through focusing on:

- undertaking a practical project based on the participants' particular interest and role
- developing the whole school culture and contributing to school improvement
- developing leadership skills, enhancing professionalism and bringing up-to-date educational thinking into the school's discussion forums
